VIRGINIA JUVENILE JUSTICE ASSOCIATION

Celebrating the Past, Embracing the Present & Envisioning the Future

30th VJJA Fall Juvenile Justice Institute & 40th Anniversary Celebration November 1-3, 2006 • Richmond, Virginia

Conference Theme

For years, the Virginia Juvenile Justice Association's fall conference has been the premier event for spotlighting research-based strategies and programs for Virginia's youth. Following that trend, the 30th Fall Juvenile Justice Institute, "Celebrating the Past, Embracing the Present & Envisioning the Future", promises to be an event you will not want to miss. Participants will hear from nationally recognized speakers in the areas of evidence-based practice, motivational interviewing, best-practice courts, re-entry, cognitive behavioral interventions, female offenders, cross-system collaboration and more.

Location & Lodging

The Sheraton Richmond West, 6624 West Broad Street, Richmond, VA, 23230, (804) 285-2000 will be the site of the event. A limited number of rooms are available at the special conference rate $96, when making reservations prior to October 6. In order to maximize space and travel budgets, room sharing is encouraged.

Registration

Registration will begin on September 15 and continue through October 13. All conference participants must be pre-registered. No walk-in registrations will be accepted. Lunch is included on 11/1 and 11/2.

Who Attends?

The event is expected to attract more than 400 human services professionals to include: juvenile justice administrators, probation officers, detention home staff, correctional officers, judges, defense attorneys, prosecutors, law enforcement, child advocates, counselors, mentors, CSA Coordinators, social workers, program directors, educators and more.

Exhibits

Participants will have the opportunity to visit with more than 50 exhibitors. Expected exhibitors include: state and local government agencies, non-profits organizations, youth-serving organizations, institutions of higher learning, community-based treatment providers, group homes, treatment centers, curriculum developers, training companies and more.

Networking

In addition to formal learning opportunities, participants will be afforded multiple opportunities for relationship-building with professionals representing nearly every agency in the state that works with court-involved children. VJJA President Beth Stinnett will host the annual President's Reception, VJJA's Capital District will host the 3rd Annual Leadership Mixer, and history will be celebrated at the 40th Anniversary Bash.

About the Conference Sponsor

Founded in 1966, the Virginia Juvenile Justice Association is an organization of more than 1000 professionals representing court services, the judiciary, detention homes, correctional facilities, group homes, indigent defense, social services, education, law enforcement and other groups with an interest in youth and family services. The organization is administered by an elected board and is committed to child advocacy and advancing the professionals interests and competencies of its members.
