

30th Fall Juvenile Justice Training Institute

Sponsored By: Virginia Juvenile Justice Association (VJJA)

Working Document: Workshops Subject to Change Without Notice – Last Updated 10/7/1006

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 1

9:00 AM
Presentation of the Colors	Hanover Juvenile Correctional Center Junior ROTC
Welcome	Beth Mohler Stinnett, VJJA President
Opening Remarks	Barry Green, Director, Department of Juvenile Justice
9:45 AM
PLENARY ADDRESS	Dr. Marilyn Van Dieten, Orbis Partners, Toronto, ON Motivational Interviewing: Principles & Practices
1:45 - 3:30 PM
CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS
1	John Tuell, CWLA	Promoting a Coordinated & Integrated Juvenile Justice System
2	Anna Powers, Supreme Court of VA	The Virginia Drug Treatment Court Model
3	Andy Cohen, Any Transactions	Enhancing Graduated Sanctions Using Everyday Technology
4	Dept Correctional Ed Panel	Parole Re-Entry: Ensuring a Smooth Educational Transition
5	Dana Schoenberg, Ctr. Child. Law	C.H.A.P.T.E.R.S. Standards for Secure Confinement
6	Ergometrics Applied Personnel	MGMT Workshop – Title TBA
7	Linda O'Dell, Alexandria CSU	SOHO – A Space of Her Own: An art-based mentoring program for low-income, at-risk girls in Alexandria
3:45 – 5:15 PM
CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS
1	Dr. Marilyn Van Dieten, Orbis	Working With Girls: Gender Responsive Case Management
2	Dennis Gilbert, 9 th Dist CSU	VA is for Lovers: The Marriage B/W V-Teleconferencing & After-hours Intake
3	Dr. Nicole Parsons Pollard, VCU	Best Practices in Truancy Intervention
4	Steve Hixon, Henrico Mental Health	Fostering Community Engagement Through Meaningful Community Service Work
5	Amy Atkinson, Commission on Youth	Evidence Based Practice in Children's Mental Health
6	Management Panel	It Ain't Easy Being the Boss - Management Challenges Part I

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2

9:00 AM
Welcome	Beth Mohler Stinnett, VJJA President
Announcements	Katherine Farmer, 2006 Fall Institute Planning Chair
Opening Remarks	The Honorable Brian J. Moran, 46 th District House of Delegates
9:45 AM
PLENARY ADDRESS	Dr. Edward Latessa, University of Cincinnati What Works & What Doesn't In Reducing Recidivism: The Prin. of Eff. Intervention
2:00 – 3:30 PM
CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS
1	David Altschuler, Johns Hopkins Univ.	Effective Parole Transition & Re-Entry
2	Various JDAI Leaders	Promising Partnerships in VA's JDAI Localities (Spotlight on Hampton's Family Crisis Stabilization Model)
3	Andrew Block, Just Children	Educational Advocacy: In School and the Right School
4	Dr. David Hawkins, VCRCA & TRGHC	ART – Aggression Replacement Training: A Cognitive Behavioral Approach
5	Fred Dyer, Dyer and Associates	Multisystemic Treatment for Juvenile Offenders
6	Management Panel	It Ain't Easy Being the Boss - Management Challenges Part II
3:45 – 5:15 PM
CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS
1	Ed Latessa, University of Cincinnati	Adopting Evidence Based Practices
2	Susan Pauley, VAMHMRSAS	Evidence Based Practice in Adolescent Substance Abuse Treatment
3	Preeti Chahaun, UVA & Dale Schulz, Culpeper JCC BSU	Female Adolescent Offenders: Psychopathology, Rejection Sensitivity & Recidivism
4	Fred Dyer, Dyer and Associates	Managing Children and Adolescents in Residential Settings
5	To Be Announced	To Be Announced
6	Joyce Fogg, Manager, VEC	Creating a Culture to Attract & Retain Employees in Juvenile Justice/Human Services

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3

9:00 AM
Welcome	Beth Mohler Stinnett, VJJA President
Announcements	Katherine Farmer, 2006 Fall Institute Planning Chair
Opening Remarks	Special Guest - To Be Announcement
9:30 AM
PLENARY ADDRESS	Catherine Lowe, National Council of Juvenile & Family Court Judges (NCJFCJ) Building on the Past To Design Future "Courts of Excellence" followed by panel discussion
12:30 – 1:00 PM
CLOSING	Closing Remarks and Door Prizes

Photo
Not Available

Marilyn Van Dieten, PhD, is a registered clinical psychologist with over 20 years' experience in the implementation, training, and development of programs with offenders. Dr. Van Dieten was recently awarded (2003) the Maud Booth Award by Volunteers of America for her contributions to the development of correctional treatment programs. She received her doctorate in clinical psychology from the University of Ottawa in 1989. During her professional training she was mentored by leaders in the development of the "What Works" agenda for corrections and quickly became recognized as a leader through the application of this work in human service agencies. Since this time she has been involved in working with numerous jurisdictions to revamp their operations to reflect "What Works". Her varied experiences include the development of curriculum for assessment, case management, programming, staff training, quality control, certification, and performance appraisal redesign, as well as formal program evaluation.

Edward J. Latessa, PhD, is a Professor and Head of the Division of Criminal Justice at the University of Cincinnati. Dr. Latessa has published over 75 works in the area of criminal justice, corrections, and juvenile justice. He is co-author of seven books including Corrections in the Community, which is now in its third edition, and the 10th edition of Corrections in America. Professor Latessa has directed over 60 funded research projects including, studies of day reporting centers, juvenile justice programs, drug courts, intensive supervision programs, halfway houses, and drug programs. He and his staff have also assessed over 350 correctional programs throughout the United States. Dr. Latessa is a consultant with the National Institute of Corrections, and he has provided assistance and workshops in over forty states. Dr. Latessa served as President of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences (1989-90). He has also received several awards including: the August Vollmer Award from the American Society of Criminology (2004), the Simon Dinitz Criminal Justice Research Award from the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Correction (2002), the Margaret Mead Award for dedicated service to the causes of social justice and humanitarian advancement by the International Community Corrections Association (2001), the Peter P. Lejins Award for Research from the American Correctional Association (1999); ACJS Fellow Award (1998); ACJS Founders Award (1992); and the Simon Dinitz award by the Ohio Community Corrections Organization.

Catherine Lowe has served the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges for thirteen years, as staff, faculty and consultant. She was recently designated to guide the Council's national effort to implement the new Juvenile Delinquency Guidelines. She is Director Emerita of the California Center for Judicial Education and Research, and the Education Division of the Administrative Office of the California Courts. In Nevada, she served as Director of Clark County Juvenile Probation Services, and as Deputy Director of the State Youth Services Division. Her adjunct and visiting faculty appointments include: Harvard/Penn State School of Continuing Professional Education; University of California-Irvine School of Social Ecology; University of Nevada Department of Criminal Justice, and University of Georgia School of Law. She holds a bachelor's degree in English from Dominican University in San Rafael, California, and a master's degree in Public Administration from Golden Gate University in San Francisco.